

Modern Slavery Act Statement 2024

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (the “Act”) for Balyasny Asset Management (UK) LLP, Balyasny International Asset Management Limited, Balyasny International Limited, Balyasny International II Limited and Balyasny International (Holdings) Limited (collectively “Balyasny”) in respect of the financial year ended December 2024.

Organisational Structure and Business

Balyasny Asset Management (UK) LLP is a limited liability partnership incorporated in England and Wales. It is an investment management firm, authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority.

Balyasny’s Commitment

Balyasny is committed to conducting its business without modern slavery in either its business or its supply chains. Modern slavery as referred to in the Act includes slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour, and human trafficking.

Balyasny’s Supply Chain

As an investment management firm, Balyasny’s limited supply chain is predominantly made up of business and professional service organisations or providers. Having reviewed the requirements of the Act with regard to its business, Balyasny believes that its business and supply chain are at low risk of containing instances of modern slavery.

Policies and Procedure

Balyasny has various policies and procedures in place to ensure adherence to applicable laws and regulations, including in relation to recruitment and employment, whistle blowing, discrimination and harassment, bribery and corruption, money laundering and escalation of issues. Appropriate due diligence is also undertaken when on-boarding vendors and suppliers with an expectation that all providers adhere to relevant laws. These policies and procedures are periodically reviewed to ensure they remain effective, and training is periodically provided to staff ensuring awareness.
